Girl Scouting's highest awards—the Bronze, Silver, and Gold Awards—are presented to girls who make a lasting difference in the world.

For Riley Dunn "going gold" means earning the highest achievement in Girl Scouting.

This award, presented to Riley by Girl Scouts Western Pennsylvania, recognizes girls in grades 9 through 12 who demonstrate extraordinary leadership through sustainable and measurable Take Action projects that address important community needs.

Riley has been a Girl Scout for 12 years, and she serves as the Scout Ambassador of Troop 53563. Her Gold Award project began in April, 2020 and was completed in February, 2022.

For her project, Riley interviewed a variety of different people and asked questions about their experiences during the first months of the COVID-19 pandemic. She then used these interviews in order to write a book about the pandemic. The book tells each persons story. With this project, Riley hopes to allow people to understand what others went through during that difficult

COMMITTEE

In December and March, Dr. Lucas, Dr. DeMore-Savine, and Mrs. Miller met with four panels of high school students to learn their perspectives as they reflected upon their experiences as Trinity Hillers. The students offered feedback and input about District-wide operations, teaching and learning, and the best parts of school. They also asked for the library to be reimagined as a media center where they can work collaboratively and use technology. Upon listening to students' thoughts, Dr. Lucas was pleased to bring pep assemblies back and unveil the new media center space at the High School. He also promised that the Hiller Hoagie and other favorites would remain as food options at lunch. Looking to the future, Dr. Lucas will consider students' recommendations for ensuring that all instruction is relevant and meaningful.

PBS Kids Family & Community Learning!

Trinity East hosted their first PBS Kids Family & Community Learning session last night! Grown-ups and kids shared knowledge and laughs with an evening of eating, exploring, playing, and sharing. We explored by using PBS Kids Scratch Jr. By snapping together colorful programming blocks, kids made characters move, jump, dance and sing. In the process, they solved problems, designed projects and expressed themselves using technology! Thank you to @WQEDEDU for allowing us to offer such an amazing program to our community!

Sienna Heasley has been awarded as a National Medalist in the 2022 Scholastic Art & Writing Awards! More than 100,000 students submitted more than 260,000 works of art and writing to the 2022 Scholastic Awards. Her work was selected by some of the foremost leaders in the visual and literary arts for excellence in originality, technical skill, and the emergence of a personal voice or vision. Less than 2,000 works received a National Medal, which places her within the top 1% of all submissions! Her work will be published in the Online Galleries at artandwriting.org in June. Her name will also be listed in Yearbook 2022, an annual publication of Best Teen Art and Best Teen Writing, which features selections of works by National Medalists. Congratulations, Sienna!

Betty White, the famous Golden Girl and animal advocate, would have turned 100 years old on January 17th. In honor of her devotion to animals, there was a Betty White Challenge on this day for people to donate five dollars to support animal shelters and rescues. Trinity North had its own Betty White Challenge. The challenge was for the school to collect 100 animal items to donate to a family rescue called Bridge to Home Animal Rescue (Scarlett and Evan MacBeth's family). Anything over this number was contributed to The Washington County Humane Society (Kaylee Fortney's connection). Beginning on Monday, January 24 through February Beginning on Monday, January 24 through February North collected donations such as food, toys, blankets, monetary, etc., to give to these organizations. The grade level with the most donations was treated to a movie afternoon! We were happy to help our furry friends have a full belly, keep warm, and feel comfortable while waiting for their forever home.

After weeks of eager anticipation, 5th graders in the four elementary schools received their rainbow trout eggs from Trout in the Classroom (TIC). Here, Trinity East's students observe the eggs before immersing the bag into the tank.

Before their arrival, students learn about tank set up and maintenance, the rainbow trout's growth and development from egg to alevin and then to fry, and how to care for the trout while in their care.

After learning about our local watersheds, the trout will be released in May at Mingo Creek, where the 5th graders will spend the day participating in outdoor education.

WIRCARIE OUTHERCH

It's a great day when our Hillers join WeCare Street Outreach, a City Mission program to help Washington's homeless and underserved population. Teammates from basketball, volleyball, soccer, band, wrestling, rifle, baseball, track, and football are making a difference in our community!

Women's History Month

Trinity North students,
Lilyana and Carter from Mrs.
Quinn's first grade class, stop to look at some pictures and quotes from famous women in honor of Women's History

The Trinity North staff put away their lesson plans and put on their aprons to work at the Dairy Queen on Wylie Avenue. They were taught how to make sundaes, blizzards, milkshakes, cones, etc. Their ice cream creations may not have looked exactly right, but oh, were they yummy! The best part was that so many students and their families participated in this community event to raise money for the school. The staff had a blast, while the students had fun seeing the staff in a new light. However, the staff decided they better keep their current day jobs! Staff participating: Dr. Demian, Mrs. Borovich, Mrs. Crawford, Mr. Crossley, Mrs. Crow, Mrs. Flynn, Mr. Frey, Mrs. Georgalas, Miss Gorges, Mrs. Heimberger, Mr. Hughes, Mrs. Karoleski, Mrs. Oros, Mrs. Przystup, Mrs. Rawlins, Mr. Skokowski, Mrs. Stiner, and Mrs. Sutton.

Month.

Appreciation is extended to all Guest Readers who participated. Students enjoyed many events during the week thanks to teachers, staff, and parents.
